The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

In the life of the Church, we have come full circle with this feast; we have celebrated God's great love for us in sending the Son, Jesus; we have celebrated his life, death and Resurrection; we have celebrated his Ascension and last week, we came full tilt in the celebration of Pentecost. Now we celebrate the TRINITY. The Trinity is the fundamental doctrine of the Church that is scripturally based; it is the revealed truth from the Father (Burning Bush), from the Son (the Son sent) and of the Spirit (I send the Paraclete). The Trinity is the sum and totality of God: the Creator, the Saviour and the Sanctifier. The Trinity is a mystery, a partially exposed truth which calls on faith to complete; the Trinity is the teaching of God, three persons in one Godhead, three personalities in one entity, but a heavenly being. There can be much difficulty in our understanding of this mystery when we try to speak of this other worldly, divine being in our human language because this human language limits us and limits our understanding. Oftentimes in the study of God we have to let go of our intellectual capacity to fathom the unfathomable and lean on our faith understanding and say, "I accept! I believe!" This is not the easiest thing to do in our world and at our time when we want to be able to reach out and touch everything. Be that as it may be, I can still say in faith and I hope that you can do the same that, "God is in the heavens and all's right with the world." May the Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Spirit protect us and guide us always!

The Procession on the Feast of Corpus Christi

Next weekend we celebrate the titular feast of the parish. This feast is more than 1000 years old and celebrates, "The Body and Blood of Christ". In past times, the tradition of a public procession with the Monstrance with Christ through the streets of the Parish (town) was the normative form of praise to Jesus. We will bring this to fruition with "a Walk with Jesus" around the edge of the parish (Curry, McKay, Dominion & Cabana) after the 12 noon Mass. We will finish with benediction and a reception.

God bless all of us next week on our special Feast Day.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION — This Sunday at 2:30 pm, we celebrate 85 young boys and girls as they prepare to enter a special relationship with Jesus. The First Communion class is invited to participate in the procession in honour of the Feast of Corpus Christi next Sunday after the 12 noon Mass.
