Saint Martin of Flaherty Altar Society – St Martin's is looking to begin an altar society at our church. An altar society is a group of parishioners who care for the altar and the sanctuary. They help with preparing the altar flowers and decorations for the sanctuary for masses and for special liturgical seasons. They also help with washing and caring for our altar linens and clergy vestments. The washing and caring for the linens can be a prayerful meditation and the altar linen ministers have the ability to bring about sacredness in the ordinary task of cleaning and pressing linens. This part of the ministry can be done at home.

This ministry is open to men and women, young and not so young. Even ones who are homebound and cannot be a part of other Liturgical ministries at this time in their lives, but who wish to serve here at St. Martin's. Please prayerfully consider being a part of this ministry.

For more information or to volunteer to be a part of this, please contact Roselle Muse at (270) 272-4898, or come see me at the office or after mass. Thank you!

Outreach

Nana's Room

6:00-7:30PM Open during the Summer.

You are invited to join in fellowship while helping others. Thanks for your generosity!

Thank you to Charlie and Barb Wilkins!

for their donation of 5 sewing machines.

We feel so blessed to have them to use and can't wait to bless others with our goods that we sew.

Items needed in Nana's Room:

blue jeans	large totes/lids
flash lights	batteries
sterno canned heat/fuel	blankets

--Monetary gifts can be donated, make check out to St. Martin of Tours, specify Nana's Room on the memo.

--Artistic person to write/paint prayer on the wall.

--Thanks for your donations of plastic bags!

Right now, we have enough plastic bags to last us so please hold off on bringing in more bags at this time.

*If anyone would like us to donate a blanket for a loved one who is suffering with illness please contact Gail (Nana).

*We still are in need of helpers to make the mats. If you would like to learn how, please contact Nana.

*If you would like to help sew the quilts, stop by and pick up the already cut-out pieces or join us on Wednesdays.

*One of the blue jean quilts will be donated to our picnic in September. Gail Ray 270-668-9868

Donations to Meade County Clothes Closet and Pantry will be collected.

Please supply non-perishable food items with a non-expired date. Items can be left on the side altar under the St. Joseph statue. This is a very worthwhile service in our community. Thank you for your support.

Marriage Moments

Summer is a time of rest - sort of. Maybe you take a vacation or ease up on your work schedule. But you may still feel busy. Consider, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." (Mark 6: 31) Can you take some quiet, restful couple time this week?

Parenting Pointers

July 22 is Parents' Day in the USA. Sure, we already have Mother's Day and Father's Day but why not make this a day that doesn't involve cards or gifts, but rather do something fun as a family this weekend. Honor yourselves, even if it just means taking a nap.

Word of Life

For all shepherds of the Church: May they witness with their lives to the incredible worth of every person.

Quote

Our hearts were made for You, O Lord, and they are restless until they rest in you.
-St. Augustine of Hippo

About the Bible

www.usccb.org/bible/understanding-the-bible/faq.cfm
Do we read from the Bible at Mass?

Readings from Scripture are part of every Mass. At least two readings (3 on Sundays and solemnities), one always from the Gospels, make up the Liturgy of the Word. In addition, a psalm or canticle is sung.

For ease, these readings are typically read from a Lectionary, which includes the sections of the Bible to be read on a given day.

What's the difference between a Bible and a Lectionary?

A Lectionary provides the readings and the responsorial psalm assigned for each Mass of the year (Sundays, weekdays, and special occasions). The readings are divided by the day or the theme (baptism, marriage, vocations, etc.) rather than according to the books of the Bible. Introductions and conclusions have been added to each reading. Not all of the Bible is included in the Lectionary.

Individual readings in the Lectionary are called pericopes, from a Greek word meaning a "section" or "cutting." Because the Mass readings are only portions of a book or chapter, introductory phrases, called incipits, are often added to begin the Lectionary reading, for example, "In those days," "Jesus said to his disciples," etc.

How is the Lectionary arranged?

The Lectionary is arranged in two cycles, one for Sundays and one for weekdays.

The Sunday cycle is divided into three years, labeled A, B, and C. 2017 is Year A. 2018 is Year B, 2019 is Year C, etc. In Year A, we read mostly from the Gospel of Matthew. In Year B, we read the Gospel of Mark and chapter 6 of the Gospel of John. In Year C, we read the Gospel of Luke. The Gospel of John is read during Lent and the Easter season in all three years. The first reading, usually from the Old Testament, reflects important themes from the Gospel reading. The second reading is usually from one of the epistles, a letter written to an early church community. These letters are read semi-continuously. Each Sunday, we pick up close to where we left off the Sunday before, though some passages are never read.

The weekday cycle is divided into two years, Year I and Year II. Year I is read in odd-numbered years (2017, 2019, etc.) and Year II is used in even-numbered years (2018, 2020, etc.) The Gospels for both years are the same. During the year, the Gospels are read semi-continuously, beginning with Mark, then moving on to Matthew and Luke. The Gospel of John is read during Christmas, Lent, and the Easter season. For Advent, Christmas, and Lent, readings are chosen that are appropriate to the season. The first reading on weekdays may be taken from the Old or the New Testament. Typically, a single book is read semi-continuously (though some passages are not read) until it is finished and then a new book is started.

The year of the cycle does not change on January 1st, but on the 1st Sunday of Advent (usually late November/early December) which is the beginning of the liturgical year. The liturgical year 2018 will begin on December 3, 2017 and end on December 1, 2018.

In addition to the Sunday and weekday cycles, the Lectionary provides readings for feasts of the saints, for common celebrations such as Marian feasts, for ritual Masses (weddings, baptisms, etc.), for votive Masses, and for various needs. These readings have been selected to reflect the themes of these celebrations. www.usccb.org

St. Martin of Tours, Dear well-beloved Saint, you were first a soldier like your father. Converted to the Church, you became a soldier of Christ, a priest and then a Bishop of Tours. Lover of the poor, and model for pagans and Christians alike, protect our soldiers at all times. Make them strong, just and charitable. Always aiming at establishing peace on earth.
