St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord Happy Easter!

Or as most other languages prefer: Blessed Pasch—Passover! Pasqua, Pascua, Páscoa, Pâques! Israel's Passover through the Red Sea to the Promised Land! Jesus' Passover through the Cross to resurrection! Our catechumens' Passover last night, and ours once upon a time, through Baptism's waters to our family's Eucharist! Welcome, everybody! As someone once said of the Catholic Church, "Here comes everybody!" We make our own Saint John Chrysostom's Easter welcome from fourteen hundred years ago: "Let everyone enjoy this radiant feast! You who fasted from Lent's beginning, and you who didn't fast at all, rejoice! The table's richly set! Come, take from it, everybody, no worries, no embarrassment! All of you, taste the banquet of faith! Enjoy the feast of forgiveness! Let no one grieve for having sinned again and again: pardon has risen from the tomb!" Happy Easter! Blessed Pasch! Welcome, everybody!

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA

The Holy Name Society invites everyone to pray the Divine Mercy Novena and Chaplet that began on Good Friday (April 19) and concludes on the Saturday before Divine Mercy Sunday (April 28).

The Novena prayer booklets are available in the back of church and at each exit by the bulletins. Please take it home with you or you can go online to:

<https://daily-prayers.org/divine-mercy/what-is-divine-mercy/the-novena>.

This Novena was given to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska during a series of visions of Jesus. It is our invitation to trust in God's endless mercy and focuses on a different group of souls to pray for as we ask Jesus to shine his eternal Mercy on each group. As we prepare to celebrate the crucifixion, death, and resurrection of Jesus at Easter, let us take a little time to pray with and for our families and friends for Jesus' Divine Mercy.
