Sincere thanks to all who share the responsibility of parish support. Your care, concern and generosity are greatly appreciated!!

Unless a seed first dries out and dies, it cannot be planted in the earth to grow. Unless we die to our selfish ways, we cannot expect to be people who will “lay down their lives for their friends”. If you think God’s plan for you could be to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, Contact Fr. Michael King, Vocation Director, Diocese of Hamilton 905-528-7988 x2246

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

This LENT ignite your prayer life

Scripture Meditation

Christians believe that the Bible is the living Word of God. For this Word to speak to us, though, we must read and reflect on it. We must hear what the Lord is saying to us through the particular Scripture reading. Meditation uses the mind and the heart to help us hear the word of the Lord. It engages the faculties of thinking and imagination (our minds), the love we have for God (our hearts), and also the resolutions we make to live better Christian lives (our "hands and feet").

St. Ignatius of Loyola taught an approach to mediating on the Scriptures. He deeply believed in the value of fully engaging our imaginations in our reading and reflecting on the meaning to be found in the Bible. This is the practice Ignatius called "Application of the Senses." The pray-er "applies" each of his or her senses to the reading, using imagination to "hear" the words and sounds of the scene, to "see" the sights, to "smell" the smells, to "taste" the food, dust, and drink, and to "feel" textures, dirt, skin, etc.

- Select a Scripture passage.
The Young Jesus (Luke 2:41-50); Miracle of Cana (John 2:1-12)
The Man Born Blind (John 9:1-41); Raising of Lazarus (John 11:1-44); Washing the Apostles' Feet (John 13:1-20);
The Crucifixion (Luke 23:33-49)
- Settle down, sit with your spine straight, feet on the floor, knees slightly apart, hands on your lap, eyes closed. Breathe deeply and slowly; be aware of the sounds around; and be still. Play some quiet instrumental music to set a prayerful environment.
- Pray to the Holy Spirit, you are in God's presence, feel the warmth and the love. As you slowly inhale and exhale, ask the Holy Spirit to help you pray and to hear what the Lord is saying.
- Read the Scripture passage slowly and meditatively.
- Meditate on the Scripture passage.
- Make a resolution. Whatever the resolution, thank the Lord for the moments he spent with you and for any insights received.
- Reflect on the experience.

SHARE LENT: Solidarity Sunday

We wish to thank you for your generosity on this Development and Peace Solidarity Sunday. Your donation will be used to help our sisters and brothers all over the world — from Lebanon to Cambodia, to Nigeria and beyond! The theme of our Share Lent campaign Together for Peace, invites us to build peace through dialogue and reconciliation and to consider mercy as a source of hope for the future. This is what Pope Francis underlined on the occasion of the Jubilee of Mercy: "Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instils in us the courage to look to the future with hope." Thank you for helping us create a future filled with hope!
