PARISH SUPPORT

Last Weekend

Weekend Offering (128 env)	$2883
Loose Donations	$285
Latin Community	$381
Papal Collection (9 env)	$90
Building (6 env)	$130

Sincere thanks to all who share the responsibility of parish support. Your care, concern and generosity are greatly appreciated!!

The confused and fear-filled apostles were totally changed by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit as they became powerful and dynamic proclaimers of their faith in Jesus Christ. In today's Church God calls priests, religious and deacons to serve Him and to serve others especially by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. If you feel God may be calling you to this ministry, Contact Fr. Michael King, Vocation Director, Diocese of Hamilton 905-528-7988 x2246

PASTOR'S MESSAGEThe Holy Spirit, Soul of the Church

by Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.

"For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body; and we were all given to drink of one Spirit" (1 Cor 12:13)

How many of you have heard people from your own generation or older say something like this: "I believe in Jesus, but I don't need the Church." Or: "I'm a spiritual person, but I'm not religious."

Here's the problem with those statements: Without Jesus, there's no Church. It's that simple. And it's also true the other way around: Without the Church, there's no way we can have a lasting, personal relationship with the true Jesus Christ. The original Greek word for the Church is ekklesia, which means a gathering of those who are "called out" — called out of the darkness of the world by God for a new life in Jesus Christ. The whole reason for Jesus' incarnation was to bring salvation to all humanity, not just his contemporaries. So He had to form a community of believers that would preserve his mission and continue it for all the generations to come. This is why He founded the family of faith we call the Church. He then made sure that his Church would become God's people forever, by sending the Holy Spirit on Pentecost.

No matter how flawed or sinful individual Catholics may be, the Holy Spirit dwells in the Church and guarantees that she will always remain the sacrament of Salvation. In other words, the Church is the only certain way by which all men and women can find the gift of salvation brought by Jesus.

We Catholic believers today are part of the same, living, community of faith founded by Jesus Christ Himself. There's an unbroken continuity that starts with Jesus, flows down through the Apostles and arrives to us through the discipleship of previous generations and the authority of Scripture itself.

The Church is not an organization that wants to promote a certain cause. [The Church] is not about a cause. It is about the person of Jesus Christ, who, even though He is risen, has remained 'flesh'."
