PASTOR'S MESSAGE*JUBILEE MEMORIAL

Thank you dear Jubilee Committee, for all your hard work and commitment to the committee and Jubilee activities beginning June 2017. Lots of brain storming and planning has given fruit. Overall the Jubilee Eucharist was very meaningful. Special thanks to Elizabeth Meakes for an extraordinary choir and for all musicians who made the day a memorable one. We had a full participation and great congregational singing

The banquet was wonderful with a huge turnout exceeding our expectations of 170. The room was filled with chatter and laughter. The celebration is a clear indication that we are a vibrant community. I would like to thank our youth minister, Mary, for coordinating with the school the table centre pieces that were made by the students. It was a great attraction.

The participation for the 50/50 draws were very encouraging and banquet ticket sales were greatly appreciated. The plaques were a lovely gesture and keepsake for our special guests. The jubilee garden was an added beauty to the parish garden. I would like to thank Ivan Jagas, Mathew Jagas, Corey Alyea, Mathew Wilkinson, Aiden Grossi and Yvonne McGrath and all the others who have contributed to the Marian Garden.

We are awaiting for the publishing team to come out with the Jubilee book filled with history and shared stories by people of all ages and with lots of pictures which will be all time memory for us to treasure. I am happy to see a number of people have placed orders for this timely priceless gift.

May God bless and keep us in his Love

In Jesus Joy Incarnate

Fr Ray
