A camp for instruction and fundamental training

Taking place in Hofstra's state-of-the-art, air-conditioned Mack Sports Complex – the same arena that our NCAA Division I teams use – this basketball camp is excellent preparation for basketball season, getting players in shape and improving their competitive skills. Players focus on defense, dribbling and ball handling, reading screens, passing, shooting, moving without the ball, one-on-one jab series, and developing a routine. Daily competitions allow players to put new techniques to work.

About the Hofstra Men's Basketball Team:

- Head Coach Joe Mihalich has been a head coach for 21 seasons, six of them at Hofstra, and has led the team to over 350 wins and produced multiple CAA Players of the Year.
- Assistant Coach Speedy Claxton was an NBA champion with the San Antonio Spurs.
- Camp Director Colin Curtin, special assistant to the head coach, is the two-time head coach of Overseas Elite-The Basketball Tournament champions.
- Hofstra Men's Basketball has 15 former players playing professional basketball.

"Skill of the Day" focuses on a different fundamental skill each day. PLUS, each week, players enjoy a skill development clinic led by a Division I Hofstra coach.

This camp is open to any and all entrants (limited only by number, age, grade level, and/or gender).
