We, the faith community of St. John Vianney Church, celebrating the Eucharist as the centre of our faith, are committed to living out the Word of God in our homes, schools and community.

Jesus said to the people: "I am the living bread that came down from Heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

John 6

AROMA OF FRESHLY BAKED BREAD

Help me, O God, to live the recipe before I give the recipe.

Give me the kneading strength to work the words
into the doughy recesses of my life.

Help me to leave it alone a while so it can rise.

Help me not to fear the oven so it can bake.

And grant that in the baking, the world would be able to roll down its window and savour the

This week, as best as you can, try to live the recipe before you give it out.

THE HIGHEST LAW

From time to time, newspapers and magazines will offer, as an item of "filler," various laws that are still on the books but seem silly to us in our day and age. In one California city, it is illegal to have two indoor bathtubs in one house. Clean water, a precious commodity when the law was written, is now readily available, so the law seems silly. But the human value of protecting and preserving precious resources is still around, evident in many conservation laws that seem sensible to us. So it is with the laws of religious tradition. What Jesus scorns today is others' attitude toward ritual laws, an attitude that becomes nearly idolatrous when laws are observed for their own sake. Jesus teaches that observation of external ritual laws is of value only when they are emblems of our internal disposition toward the will of God. Our whole lives must follow the one ultimate law of God: to love God completely and to love neighbor entirely. Roman Catholicism is a tradition rich with customs, traditions, and even laws. As we continue to listen to the voice of Christ, we must always look into our own hearts and underneath our ritual practices to make sure that love of God and love of neighbor are what we prize above all.

New Address? Same address but New Apartment Number? Now is the time to let us know of ANY changes. We are preparing Sunday Offering Envelopes by DIRECT MAILING. We used to do Direct Mailing but thought that in-house would be less costly. After crunching numbers that was not the case. So, we are going back to DIRECT MAILING. Your envelopes will arrive in your mailbox on a quarterly basis with the first quarter arriving early December for JANUARY 2019. If you have any questions, please call Pauline or Betty Ann at the office - 519-945-4106.

Monday Euchre resumes

There is a Promise of Marriage between GREGORY GROHS
and
MARIA OLIVERIO
Their Marriage will take place
Saturday, September 29, 2018
at
St. John Vianney Church.

School starts Tuesday, September 4th. Be mindful of the children as they make their way to school, some with trepidation and others with glee.

The traffic will be challenging with busses and cars letting youngsters off as they run to meet their friends and teachers. How exciting!

Don't be afraid to ask dumb questions.

They are easier to handle than dumb mistakes.

Mass for the Deceased in Resurrection Mausoleum, Heavenly Rest Cemetery
