We, the faith community of St. John Vianney Church, celebrating the Eucharist as the centre of our faith, are committed to living out the Word of God in our homes, schools and community.

I am pleased to announce that we have two new members on our St. John Vianney Parish Finance Committee, namely, Susan Dunning and Maria Arlotta. The Committee meets regularly with me and is there to assist me in the administration of the parish. The Finance Committee is an advisory body with a consultative but not decision-making function and is separate from the Parish Pastoral Council. Our Finance Committee is made up of three members, namely, Derek Farkas, Chairperson, Susan Dunning and Maria Arlotta. Betty Ann, our parish secretary, attends the meetings to provide information and answer questions as it relates to the finances of the parish.

I offer a special thank you to Pam Macdonald for her work with our Finance Committee over the past few years. Pam's term of office is up now. We certainly appreciate her dedication. Please keep our Finance Committee in your prayers as we strive to achieve a financial viability that will not only sustain the needs and requirements of the Parish but will assist in maintaining a financially healthy Parish for many years to come.

Fr. Daniel
