We, the faith community of St. John Vianney Church, celebrating the Eucharist as the centre of our faith, are committed to living out the Word of God in our homes, schools and community.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cause of church unity is commended to Christians for prayer and action every year around this time. This week is not so much to focus on the many divisions within the Christian family, but on bonds of faith and mission. Even though Christians have always shown an inclination to fracture, spin off, and mutate into new expressions, recent history shows some new points of convergence and agreement. Catholics are more firmly rooted in the word of God, for example, and many Protestants are more likely to celebrate Communion than in years past. Some denominations are merging and pooling resources, and people from various traditions are collaborating on projects.

The call of this week is to be mindful of the diversity of our traditions and customs while treasuring what we hold in common. The old advice to "lighten up" is good medicine, because sometimes our differences are delightful and amusing. If someone says, "Let us pray," a Catholic might close the eyes, bow the head and fold hands; a Protestant reach out and clasp hands with the person in the next chair; and someone belonging to an Orthodox tradition might stand up with eyes wide open. Each has taken a different path, but the goal is always the same. This is a week not for focusing on the well-worn paths of divergence, but for mutual delight in a common goal.

COFFEE HOUR

Bishop Fabbro has announced that our Family of Parishes will be activated in July of this year. Our Family of Parishes includes Our Lady of the Atonement Parish, St. John Vianney Parish, St. Vincent de Paul Parish and St. Anthony of Padua Hungarian Parish who worship at St. Vincent de Paul church, The Bishop has also announced that Fr. Robert Rocheleau will be appointed Pastor of our Family of Parishes and I will be appointed Associate Pastor. (Fr. Barnabas Kiss, O.F.M., will continue to serve the Hungarian community.) In the interim, Fr. Rob will be working closely with the staff from the three sites and a Transition Team. There is much preparation needed as we plan for the activation of our Family of Parishes. Please keep Fr. Rob in your prayers and all of us who are part of our Family grouping. Bishop Fabbro said, "As we embark on a whole new model for our parishes, we need to keep foremost in our minds the heart of our mission: the joyful proclamation of the Good News of God's immense merciful love. All of our efforts are to be oriented to this mission, directed to this mission, focussed on this mission."
