

WHO AM I TO JUDGE?

We're living in a relativistic culture. Society tends to say that there is no absolute right or wrong for everyone. You may agree with that statement, or you may accept that there is a moral standard but struggle to convincingly explain your conviction to others.

Many of us shy away from the topic of morality out of fear of offending others or being labeled "intolerant." We are all affected daily by this relativistic worldview.

Join us for a powerful 8-part series called Who Am I to Judge? where we will answer the question: How do we talk about morality in a world that no longer believes in truth?
