Father's Day Envelopes Remember to submit your Father's Day Envelope anytime during the month of May so it will be on the altar for Father's Day, Sunday, June 17th. In addition to our fathers, other men – grandfathers, godfathers, uncles, husbands, brothers, sons, teachers, or friends – may have played an important role in our lives. Submitting their names is a perfect way to show your gratitude to them. Your father and all of the other men you submit, both living and deceased, will benefit from your prayers and the Masses. Your envelopes will remain on the altar the entire month of June.

May 20th – Pentecost As we celebrate Pentecost, it is important to remember the ongoing role of the Holy Spirit. It is the Spirit that inspired the authors of the Bible, it is the Spirit that guides those called on to interpret the Scriptures, and it is the Spirit that enables each of us to hear what God has to say.

May 20th — THE LAST PRE CLASS for the 2017-2018 school year will be Sunday, May 20th. Please make sure you get your child/children registered for the 2018-2019 school year before the deadlines.

May 20th — Bethlehem Wood Carving will be visiting our parish May 19/20. They will be set up in the Parish Hall before and after all three Masses. For centuries, the Christians of Bethlehem have earned a living by carving religious art from the native olive wood. Fewer pilgrims are journeying to the holy land today, making it difficult for Christian artisans to support their families. Since the start of its mission, Bethlehem Wood Carving has helped hundreds of struggling families. They make it possible for the Catholic Christians to maintain their livelihood and their ancestral homes in the land of Christ. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christians. They gladly accept all major credit cards.

MEMORIAL DAY

May 28th — Memorial Day The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, May 28th in observance of Memorial Day. Daily Mass will be celebrated at 9:00 a.m.

MAY – Month of Our Lady

The Greek word for Pentecost (Pentekostē) means “fiftieth,” and in early Christianity it referred to the entire Fifty Days of Easter. The roots of Pentecost can be found in the Jewish festival of Weeks (Shavu’ot), the Fifty-day celebration following Passover (Ex 23:16). It was a harvest festival in which the first fruits of the harvest were offered to God in gratitude. It eventually became associated with the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai. Early Christians reinterpreted the Jewish festival as a commemoration of the coming of the Holy Spirit, since Acts records that the Holy Spirit came to the disciples when the festival of Pentecost was fulfilled (see Acts 2:1-11). The celebration of Pentecost may begin on Saturday afternoon or evening with the Vigil. By the end of the fourth century in the West, Pentecost became a time for the initiation of those not baptized at Easter. Thus, a night vigil was added like the Easter Vigil for this purpose.

FIRST READING (Acts 2:1-11) Pentecost was one of the three pilgrimage feasts of the Jews, when all who were able came to the Temple in Jerusalem; thus, the presence of so many foreigners in Jerusalem that day. All the disciples were gathered in one place. Acts 1:13-14 identifies these disciples as the Eleven, Mary, the mother of Jesus, the women who journeyed with Jesus from Galilee to Jerusalem and his relatives. The cosmic sign of the strong driving wind attracted the crowd. (In Greek, the language in which Acts was originally written, the same word is used for both “wind” and “spirit.”) Note also the sign of “fire.” The fruit of the Spirit’s presence and work is the disciples’ ability to proclaim the Gospel in various tongues and be understood by those who heard them.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34) As at the Vigil Mass, Psalm 104 is used, with the same antiphon. There is some variation in the stanzas. Today’s addition in the last stanza voices the desire that both God’s glory and God’s joy in his creation endure. The psalmist is intent on being pleasing to the Lord and finding joy in him. A beautiful theme for each of our lives!

SECOND READING (1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13) The contrast between the Spirit and the flesh—and their respective fruits—is emphasized in today’s reading. The flesh represents anything that is opposed to God; the Spirit, that which is enlivened by God’s power and presence. Paul’s command to live by the Spirit points to the choice we have in the matter. Which fruits are more evident in our lives?

GOSPEL (John 20:19-23) The setting of today’s text is Jesus’ last discourse to his disciples, at table with them the night before he died. Jesus promises to send the Spirit, an Advocate on their behalf and the Spirit of truth. Note the intimate workings between the Father, the Son, and the Spirit and how the disciples are drawn into this by the power of the Spirit at work in their lives. On their part, the disciples must receive what the Spirit declares to them and testify on Jesus’ behalf.

REFLECTION Infused into every part of life to be made manifest in our daily lives, Jesus gives us each a great protector. Because of this we are powerful beings in Christ. Harness this beautiful power and accept your ability to truly make a difference in bold and beautiful ways. Consider downloading from World Library Publications, John Angotti’s songs: “I Send you Out” or “Come, Holy Spirit” for both are true representation to feed your soul about the message necessary to live as an empowered member of the Body of Christ. You are blessed to serve. Serve someone in Christ’s name this week.

FINAL NOTES ABOUT THE END OF EASTER TIME After the last liturgy on Pentecost Sunday, with the return to Ordinary Time, the Paschal candle is extinguished. The candle now returns to its regular location in the baptistery and it is to reside there “with due honor” for its use at the celebration of Baptism.
