

Cedarbrake

Catholic Retreat Center

Dear friends,

Each year, I witness thousands of faithful encountering Christ at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center. Seeing so many people draw closer to Christ and seek to share His love with others inspires me to do the same — an unforeseen blessing of serving as director.

When we welcome retreatants to our beautiful 75-acre campus, we rarely know what they desire from their experience. But God does, and our goal is to provide a space where they can open their hearts to receive the love of God in a greater and intentional way. Whether they arrived alone or with a group, when they return to their families and parishes, they strengthen the body of Christ — which is the very mission of our diocese.

I am so grateful for Encountering Christ. Through your generosity, Cedarbrake will be able to provide more opportunities to meet its mission of “encountering Christ in word, in nature, in Eucharist, in silence.”

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Brian Egan". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Brian Egan
Director
Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center