Liturgical Guide for Sunday, May 26, 2019

ON THIS DAY, THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF PASCHA, THE SUNDAY AFTER MID-PENTECOST, THE CHURCH REMEMBERS JESUS COMING TO THE WELL OF JACOB, FATHER OF ALL PATRIARCHS, AND ASKING FOR A DRINK OF WATER FROM THE HANDS OF THE SAMARITAN WOMAN WHO REFUSED TO SERVE HIM, SAYING THAT JESUS HAD NO DEALINGS WITH SAMARITANS. BUT THE WISE CREATOR, SAY THE WORDS OF THE ORTHROS SERVICE TODAY, CHANGED HER HEART THROUGH THE SWEETNESS OF HIS WORD; AND HAVING RECEIVED IT SHE CRIED OUT AND PROCLAIMED TO ALL: "COME AND SEE THE KNOWER OF SECRETS, GOD HIMSELF WHO HAS APPEARED IN THE FLESH SO THAT MANKIND MAY BE SAVED BY HIM." WE ALSO COMMEMORATE TODAY *all our Fathers among the saints who served as Archbishops and Patriarchs of Constantinople; Carpos and Alphaeus, Apostles of the 70; Alexandros the New Martyr of Thessaloniki; George the New of Sofia; Augustine, Archbishop of Canterbury. Through their holy intercessions, O God, have mercy on us and save us. Amen.

Welcome, Visitors and Newcomers, to our Parish!

You and your family are welcome; we look forward to knowing you. We invite you and your family to join and assist us often!

Please consider that only baptized and chrismated Orthodox Christians in canonical good standing may approach for Holy Communion. All are invited to partake of the Antidoron ("instead of the gifts") distributed at the conclusion of today's Divine Liturgy.

Reflection About Today's Religious Theme:

Jesus came to the well of Jacob, Father of the Patriarchs, and asked for a drink of water from the hands of the Samaritan Woman who refused to serve Him, saying that Jesus had no dealings with Samaritans. But the Wise Creator, say the words from the Orthros Service today, changed her heart through the sweetness of His words, so that she sought to obtain from Him the Water of Everlasting Word; and having received it she cried out and proclaimed to all: "Come and see the Knower of Secrets, God Himself who has appeared in the flesh so that mankind may be saved by Him."

SPECIAL HYMNS SUNG BEFORE/AFTER SMALL ENTRANCE

1./2./11. Hymn for the Feast of Pascha (our Lord's passover from death to life):

Sung three times after the opening of the Divine Liturgy, before the Small Entrance, and after the distribution of Holy Communion: Christ is risen from the dead, by death trampling down upon death, and to those in the tombs He has granted life.

3. Small Entrance Exclamation of the Priest:

On the occasion of today's feast, the Priest intones the following at the Small Entrance: "In your choirs, bless the Lord, you of Israel's wellspring. Save us, O Son of God, who did rise from the dead, we sing to You: Alleluia!"

4. Resurrectional Hymn - Fourth Tone (Today) – (Hymnal-pp.110-113):

Sung after the Small Entrance: The joyful news of Your resurrection was proclaimed by the angel to the women disciples. Having thrown off the curse that fell on Adam, they ran elatedly to tell the apostles: Death has been vanquished; Christ our God is risen from the dead, blessing all the world with His great mercy.

5. Hymn for Mid-Pentecost – (Hymnal-pp.166-167):

Sung after the Small Entrance: In the midst of this Paschal season, Savior, let my thirsty soul partake of the waters of true worship; for You call out inviting all: Let those who thirst come to me and drink. O Fountain of Life, Christ our God, glory to You.

6. Hymn for Archbishops & Patriarchs of Constantinople – (not in Hymnal):

Sung after the Small Entrance: O illustrious leaders and shepherds of Byzantium, you have been regarded throughout different ages as wise Hierarchs. Wherefore, the Church of Christ praises the manner of your life. Through her, as eminent luminaries, you give light to those who cry out, “Glory to her who aided you, glory to Him who crowned you, glory to Him who, through you, affirmed the Orthodox faith.”

7. Hymn Commemorating St. Christopher – (see music distributed):

It is sung after the Small Entrance: Made comely with garments woven from your venerable blood, you stand before the Lord, the King of Heaven and earth, O famed Martyr Christopher. With the choirs of Angels and the Martyrs you chant, singing the thrice-holy hymn and most awesome praises. Thus, by your intercessions with God, save us, your servants.

8. Kontakion of Pascha – (Hymnal-pp.274-277):

Sung after the Small Entrance: Into the grave You descended, Immortal One, yet You destroyed the power of Hades, and as victor You arose, O Christ our God; You proclaimed to the Myrrh Bearing Women a greeting of joy, You brought peace to Your Holy Apostles, and to the fallen You granted resurrection.

9. Megalynarion (Hymn to the Theotokos) – (Hymnal-pp.304-307):

Today, the following hymn is sung instead of "Axion Estin" or "Truly it is proper to call you blessed...": The Angel cried aloud to the Lady full of grace, Rejoice O Pure Virgin, again I say rejoice, your Son has resurrected, from the grave on the third day. Be glad, and exultant, divine gate of the light. For your Son, namely Jesus, having set within the tomb, rose and is shining more brightly than the sun, and He has fully illumined the faithful, O Lady full of the Grace of God.

10. Communion Hymn – (Hymnal-pp.318-319):

On the occasion of today's feast, the following hymn is sung instead of "Aineite" or "Praise the Lord": Receive the Body of Christ; drink from the font of immortality.

SCRIPTURAL PASSAGES FROM TODAY'S ORTHROS & DIVINE LITURGY

The Scriptures were not given us for this only, that we might have them in books, but that we might engrave them on our hearts. – St. John Chrysostom

Gospel Reading During Orthros Service (John 20:1-10)

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that He must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

Epistle Reading (Hebrews 7:26 – 8:2)

<sup>26</sup>For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. <sup>27</sup>Unlike the other high priests, He has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for His own sins, and then for those of the people; this He did once for all when He offered Himself. <sup>28</sup>For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son Who has been made perfect forever. <sup>8</sup>Now the main point in what we are saying is this: we have such a high priest, One Who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>2</sup>a minister in the sanctuary and the true tent that the Lord, and not any mortal, has set up.

Gospel Reading (John 4:5-42)

So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!" The woman said to him, "Sir I see that you are a prophet, Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth. The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you." Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you speaking with her?" Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" They left the city and were on their way to him. Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, "Rabbi, eat something." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Surely no one has brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, 'Four months more, then comes the harvest'? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor." Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I have ever done." So when the Samaritan came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world."

THIS WEEK'S MEMORY VERSE (TRY TO COMMIT TO MEMORY):

"The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come.' And let everyone who hears say, 'Come.' And let everyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift." (Rev. 22:17)

PASTORAL REFLECTION FROM FR. GEORGE:

<sup>30</sup>So they said to Him, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe You? What work are You performing? <sup>31</sup>Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'". (John 6:30-31)

In Jesus' ministry on earth, He offered spectacular evidence of Who He is. He gave His followers bread. He offered great healings. He taught them love, mercy, and forgiveness like today's Holy Gospel revealed.

That was more than 2,000 years ago, yet today, incredibly, the story is the same for us . . . Jesus has done so many things to bless us – in our families, our homes, our vocations, our parish, and our inclusion in His Holy Body with unconditional love and patience. What will it take to prove to us that our Risen Lord, Jesus Christ, is God . . . that we should submit to His Will and follow Him every moment of each day? How many more miracles and signs will He have to offer before we truly believe that He is God and gives us eternal life?

As we depart today, let us not discount the wonderful things that our Risen Lord has done for us. Today, and all this week, let us give thanks for His blessings in our lives. Each day, let us thank our Lord for His divine providence and ask that He enable us to see His efforts to shape and change us according to His Will.

"No, Lord, we do not need another miracle or mighty deed to believe. We can truly believe right now, right here, and without doubt that Jesus Christ gives us life today, . . . and forever and ever." AMEN!

Nigeria

Source of persecution Islamic oppression
Population 195,875,000
Christians 91,122,000
Main religion Christianity/Islam
Government Federal republic
Leader President Maj. Gen. (ret.) Muhammadu Buhari

Profile of persecution

Based on World Watch List 2019 data

Seemingly constant violence

Nigeria's score for violence has stayed as high as possible, primarily due to the increased attacks on Christian communities by militant Fulani herdsmen. These attacks claimed the lives of hundreds of believers during the reporting period, and villages and churches burned to the ground. Additionally, in parts of northern Nigeria, Christians are treated as second-class citizens. Christians from Muslim backgrounds face persecution from their own families.

Prayer points

- Pray for Christians in the middle of Nigeria, who are facing increased hostility and attacks from Hausa-Fulani Muslim militant herdsmen.
- Pray for Fulani militants, the members of Boko Haram and other extremist groups. Pray that God will touch their hearts with His truth.
- Often, the government of Nigeria has been accused of being slow or unwilling to address attacks against Christians. Pray for courage and for peace.

Midwest
FOOD BANK

Hands of Love: May

"For the poor will never cease from the land; therefore, I command you to do this word which says, You shall surely open your hands to your brother, to your poor and needy in your land." (Deut. 15:11)

All Sundays in May :

We will be accepting monetary donations for
Midwest Food Bank - Peachtree City

Midwest Food Bank (MFB), a faith-based, non-denominational charitable organization, was started in 2003 when the Kieser family began serving about 10 food pantries in McLean County, IL. out of a building on their family farm.

Eight distribution centers combine to distribute $9.5 million of food to over 1400 agencies each month. The Georgia center in Peachtree City began in 2011 and now serves over 320 agencies in 52 counties in the southeastern US.

We thank you for your faithful and continuous support,
