This Catholic Life.....

Depending on when you read this it is the 5th or 6th day of Christmas. So, MERRY CHRISTMAS!

I hope you had a nice day, and if you traveled, it was safe.

The 8th day of Christmas is January 1 and the beginning of a new year. We have a lot to pray for and about – individually, as a parish, our country, and the world. Fr. Michael Himes is a diocesan priest who teaches theology at Boston College. He once wrote, "Human beings are called to be the people who do what God is. God is agape (love) and we get to enact that. That is the most extraordinary statement about being a human being that I know."

We are called to be what God is. If you make new year's resolutions, or even if you don't, that might be a good place to start as you think about you and the new year.

Happy New Year, and may it be healthy and holy.

Fr. Dennis
