Archbishop's DINNER

Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club
Tuesday, August 7, 2018

The Archbishop's Dinner supports the Catholic Foundation of Oklahoma St. John Vianney Seminarian Education Endowment Fund. Archbishop Coakley will host a special Angel Reception for sponsors at 6 pm; cocktails available for all attendees at 6:30, dinner begins at 7 pm.

The St. John Vianney Endowment Fund

is an endowment fund of the Catholic Foundation of Oklahoma named after the patron saint of priests, designated to provide annual support to the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City for seminarian and priest education. The Archbishop of Oklahoma City will direct allocations from this fund. Legacy gifts to the fund are most welcome.

Did you know that priestly formation

- can last six to nine years
- forms seminarians spiritually, academically and pastorally
- typically requires four years in a college seminary and four years post-graduate in a Masters of Theology program, with the possibility of additional programs to round out their formation.
- costs $50,148 per seminarian annually
