Program environment that helps children learn

ECERS-R Assessment (program reviewed in the 2015-16 School Year)

The ECERS-R score looks at the learning environment, materials, and how teachers support and interact with children.

Rigorous Instruction

Teaching teams create engaging activities to help children develop language, social, and thinking skills based on the pre-K learning standards.

Materials and practices support children's language learning

Teachers support and interact with children during the day

A variety of learning materials are available to children for plenty of time during the day

From Early Childhood Environment Ratings Scale-Revised(ECERS-R)¹

Respect and kindness among teachers and children, and responsiveness to children

Management of time, behavior, and child involvement

Support of children's language and thinking skills

Collaborative Teachers

Teaching teams work together to improve the program.

List of recommended questions to ask when visiting a pre-K program to learn about teacher collaboration and growth

Can you describe the opportunities for how and when teachers and teaching assistants plan together?

How do teachers and teaching assistants work together to make sure that all children are learning and progressing?

What supports does the program offer to help teachers and teaching assistants improve their practice?

Quality Reviews are not conducted at all pre-K programs; that information is not included in this report as a result. The DOE is currently exploring ways to develop Collaborative Teachers measures for NYC Early Education Centers (NYCEECs).

Supportive Environment

Program staff respect and value all children and support every child to meet high expectations.

Children are supported during meals, nap, toileting, and arrival

Spaces and furniture are appropriate for children

Daily schedule supports learning (right amount of time for play, group learning, and outdoor activity)
