From the Pastor:

My Dear Parish Family:

Although I do not play any musical instruments and do not sing that well, I love music! I am a fan of many and varied styles of music. I enjoy the Christmas Carols being sung now and certainly the beautiful hymns sung at Church. I hope you will be joining me for our parish Christmas Concert on Saturday, December 15th. Please remember that the doors of the Church will be closed and locked after the 4 PM Mass and will not open again until 6 PM. Music, in particular classical music, fills my heart with great joy and brings me into a special peaceful place in my heart and mind.

Another great source of peace for me is going to Confession. I do not like having to say my sins out loud to a priest, but the peace and joy from God that I receive each time I go to Confession is my sustaining strength. Advent is a great time to listen to great music and a great time to go to Confession. Each year the Archdiocese of New York, along with the Diocese of Brooklyn, holds Reconciliation Monday before the great day of Christmas. This year please consider going to Confession here or any Church on Monday, December 17th. I recently went to Confession and will be trying to go again before Christmas. In the meantime, I invite all the members of the parish to give yourself the best Christmas present ever – Confession! I will pray for everyone to get to Confession soon and I look forward to seeing all of you at our Christmas Concert!

Until next week, Happy Advent! St. Benedict, pray for us. Servant of God, Terence Cardinal Cooke, pray for us.

Fr. Stephen P. Norton

“Blessing the Baby Jesus”

Fr. Dan and I will be “Blessing the Baby Jesus” at all the Masses on December 22nd and 23rd. You may bring to Church your image of the Baby Jesus from your home Nativity set. If you do not have a Nativity set at your home now is the time to order one online or buy one from the store. Whether you have had the Nativity set for years or it is new, we will bless the image of Baby Jesus (and any other images from your family’s Nativity set you wish to bring to Church).

FAITH FORMATION DURING ADVENT Tuesdays: December 11th and 18th

Join us for our Advent Faith Formation Series on the Eucharist, led by Fr. Dan! Our series is in 4 parts which take place on Tuesday nights, as stated above, at 7:30pm in the Convent upstairs. There are only a few spots available so please call the rectory to sign-up as soon as possible. There will be an all-included fee of $10.00.

Saturday, December 15th

Christmas Donations for Needy Children

It's that time of the year when our Christmas Angels are asking you to please make a donation to families in need. There is a box in the center aisle in Church where you can put your donation. This money helps to buy toys and warm clothing for families of our parish who are struggling. Please be as generous as you can and help put a smile on a child's face and Christmas in their hearts. Thank you for always caring and for your kindness. God Bless you!

St. Benedict's Christmas Angels
