Basic Directions in Native Ministry June 10-17, 2019

This is a seven-day institute for personnel who are beginning or wanting to learn about Native ministry. It will be held at the Sioux Spiritual Center in Howes, South Dakota. The institute features Native and non-Native presenters, who have extensive ministerial experience with and among 1 Americans.

There will be 30 hours of class work associated with the workshop. Speakers will cover topics that include Native culture, missiology, anthropology, liturgy, catechetics, deacon ministry, health issues, and principles of recovery using AA. Although the institute will take place in a Lakota setting, it will develop basic principles of inculturation that can be used in approaching any culture.
