

With Paula, let God act in us...

2nd. week of January

I am glad to know you are in communication... for not only will you feel the advantage of exchanging news regarding the good accomplished, but you will help one another in other matters, according to the various circumstances. (Saint Paula Frassinetti L. 359,3)

- During this week we will visit each other by communicating the good we accomplish!