

With Paula, let God act in us...

2nd. week of July

We must remember that St. Ignatius of Loyola, reserved to himself the care of the sick, whom he visited during the night, to make sure they lacked nothing. With them he was most lavish, giving them not only what was necessary, but also what could please them.

(St. Paula Frassinetti L. 882,30)

- Do not be afraid of tenderness...

(Pope Francis)
