3rd. week of July

Our self-love is a cunning rascal, who can make us see what does not exist. He can make us see what is white, black and what is black, white, and deceive us in such a way as to deprive us of our reasoning powers. (St. Paula Frassinetti L. 293,5)

- Therefore, thoughts must be carefully examined before they are given full approval and put into execution. (Sp. Ex. 336)
