Thank goodness it is springtime and no more snow! Thank you everyone who helped!

Passion/Palm Sunday

The final Sunday of Lent (April 14), reminds us of the solemn entrance Jesus made into Jerusalem to experience His passion and death. The palm branches that we receive on that day remind us that Jesus is truly the King of Heaven and Earth. As our King He shows us the way to His Kingdom by way of His passion. His path of life is our path of faith. Let us join Him in living His life, dying to sin and rising to live a new life with Him. Please place these new palms in prominent places in your homes. The appropriate way to discard your old palms is by burning them. If you do not want to burn them yourself, please bring them to the church and place them in the container in the foyer marked "Old Palms".
