

WEEKLY NEWS

ASSUMPTION SCHOOL WEEKLY NEWS

January 30, 2019

Here we are in the middle of Catholic Schools Week! This is always a fun week where we think about all of the great things our Catholic Schools teach and instill in our students. This week I think about how my own son (11 years of Catholic education) shows respect for those around him, uses his manners, and has a drive to do well in his studies and athletics. While yes many of these characteristics start at home, they are used on a daily basis here at school.

We at Assumption cannot thank you enough for choosing to send your child here and allowing us be a part of their educational lives. Have a great week!!!

Blessings, Mrs. Olson =)

Super Bowl Sunday:

If the Patriots win the Super Bowl your student is allowed to wear a Patriots shirt and their uniform bottoms on Monday, February 4th. Good luck Pats!

Thank you to Mrs. Zabinski for directing our school choir in singing "God Bless America" at the Worcester Railers game on Saturday Night! They were awesome!

Incident Weather School closings

We are working on getting our school closings/delays on the news stations. As of right now, school closings/delays will be on WBZ (ch. 4) and WHDH (ch. 7) and on the WHDH App. We should be listed as "Assumption School/ Millbury." As always, you will still receive a phone call, and school closings/delays will be posted on our website and Facebook page.
