ASSUMPTION SCHOOL WEEKLY NEWS

March 6, 2019

Dear Students and Parents,

I hope this finds you well! We sure have had quite a bit of snow the last few days! March seems to be the time of year to get a bunch of it! I am very happy to share that the Worcester Railers and Trax will be visiting Assumption School on the afternoon of March 14th. Assumption School sold the most tickets for the Catholic Schools Week game! Thanks to everyone who attended the game as it was a great time- with a Railers' win too!

Thank you for your cooperation with our very first Blizzard Bag. The reason for the use of Blizzard Bags is to ensure our last day of school stays at June 14th. As it was our first Blizzard Bag, we have already begun our review of the experience. With help from our staff and feedback from students and parents we will see if the process needs to be adjusted for a better experience in the future. I want to thank you for your support through this learning process.

God's blessings on this Lenten season, Mrs. Olson =)

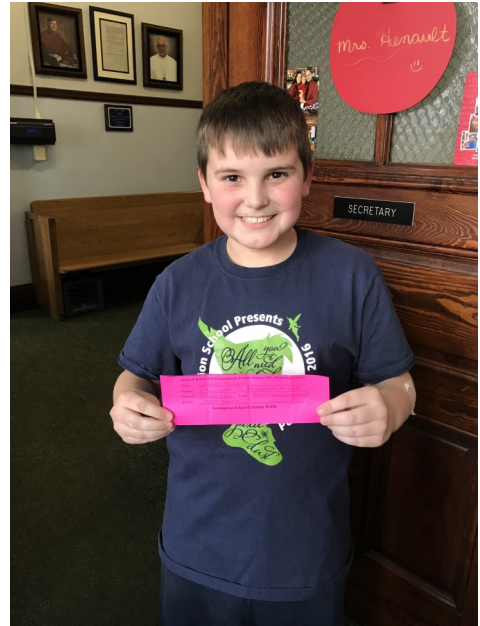

PTG Meeting

Our PTG Meeting is tomorrow night, Thursday, March 7th, at 6:30 PM, in the church hall. Hope to see you all there!
