From the Pastor's Desk

“Come, have breakfast.” (John 21:12)

How did Peter react when he heard this delightful invitation from Jesus? The invitation is so human; starting the day with a warm bowl of oatmeal is a delight, but fish and loaves with Jesus is even better. Eating breakfast, the resurrected Lord shows His full humanity. And yet the meal also shows Him to be fully divine: “none of the disciples dared to ask him, ‘Who are you?’ because they realized it was the Lord” (John 21:12). Where did these coals, fish, and loaves come from? Perhaps He created them from nothing, or at least made them from the sand, surpassing even His miraculous multiplication of the loaves.

When John alerted Peter to Jesus’ presence, before the mysterious breakfast appeared, Peter threw himself into the sea, seeking the Lord. In his eagerness to reach Jesus, Peter could not wait for the boat’s short return. Soon on shore, he found Jesus and breakfast. But he also found the burning coals.

With a pang, he must have shrunk from these coals. It was not long since that cold, dark, despairing night when he had tried to find some warmth from another charcoal fire, but had fled frozen with shame after denying his Lord (John 18:18). Jesus’ loving offer of breakfast cooked on coals drew Peter close, but was like coals heaped upon his remorseful head: “If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink; for you will heap coals of fire on his head” (Prov 25:21–22).

But Jesus’ coals are not like those that Peter had used to warm himself before. Those had been kindled to comfort the guards complicit in condemning the Lord. Jesus’ cooking coals, by contrast, were ignited by the fire of divine charity. Heaped on the head of a sinner like Peter, these coals serve not to exert a painful revenge, but to kindle in him the same blazing divine love.

After breakfast, Jesus’ questioning served to fan the flame:

“Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” He said to him, “Feed my lambs.” He then said to him a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” He said to him, “Tend my sheep.” He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” Peter was distressed that he had said to him a third time, “Do you love me?” and he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” [Jesus] said to him, “Feed my sheep.” (John 21:15–17)

Through His Church founded upon Peter, Jesus continues to feed us sinners, not merely with an earthly breakfast, but with the bread come down from heaven, His own body and blood. May we too be set ablaze by this sacrament of God’s love.

Fatima: Living the Message

By Fr. Jason Brooks

Heed Your Mother's Advice

Fr. Jason Brooks brings to light why Fatima is regarded by many as the most important spiritual event of the past 100 years and why Our Lady’s message is still as relevant as ever.

“I thought I knew the story of Fatima well, but this gave even MORE insight into the message and meaning of Our Lady of Fatima.”

Guess Who's Coming to Dinner is a fun way for parishioners to meet, in groups of 6-8 people, in a relaxed, informal atmosphere over dinner and conversation. There is an element of surprise to the evening - as guest, you won't know whose home you are going to until dinnertime; and as host, you won't know who's coming - adds more fun for everyone! (It is not necessary to host to participate.) The next dinner is May 18. Sign up to be a host or a guest by May 6!!! Fill out the form stchb.org/guesswho or call Amy O'Brien. Sign up is required for each dinner you wish to participate in.

World Day of Prayer will be observed on Sunday, May 12, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest," (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes.

Piano Recital May 16. Students of Mary Ann Zabinski will perform in the school auditorium on Thursday, May 16 at 7 pm. All parishioners are cordially invited to attend.

Easter Food Drive 2019

Thank You!

The St. Charles Easter Food Drive "Share Our Blessings" was a great success! Thank you to all who caringly supported the drive, which benefited nearly 200 underprivileged families. In addition to the food bags filled by you, the monies collected were used to purchase and distribute $5,000 of Cub Food cards and $2,300 of purchased grocery items. Through your generosity, these families have come to better know the abundant love of the Risen Christ.

We received many, many notes expressing appreciation and gratitude. Here are just a few:

"Thanks so much. In a world where so many are fighting each other, you brought people together in Peace"

"Heartfelt thanks to all of you in giving us this gift. It's a joy knowing that God is with us. Thank you very much"

"Thank you so very much for this Easter blessing. I would not have had anything to share with others if it weren't for you. God bless. Happy Easter!"
