

Minutes for the Informal Women's Council Meeting on October 9, 2018

The plan had been not to have a business meeting; however, since there was a fair amount of business to cover, an impromptu meeting broke out! Here are the informal notes:

Treasurer Report – Darcie V.

Income (including parish subsidy for $750): $1442

Expenses: $693.11

Current Balance: $693.11

Reports for Past Events

Deanery – Jean B.

Seven women from St. Charles attended the Deanery meeting in September. The speaker was St. Charles parishioner, Diane Johnson, founder of Curatio, Apostolate for Health Care Workers. The next Deanery meeting is at Holy Cross on 11/12. See bulletin for details.

FMSC – Teresa D.

A group will be going to FMSC on Monday, 10/22 from 6-7:30 pm.

Reports for Upcoming Events

Bake Sale –Gail L.

The annual Bake Sale is the weekend of November 17&18 after all the Masses. Baked goods of all types are needed – including gluten-free options. A sign-up sheet for selling after the Masses will be available next meeting.

Guess Who's Coming to Dinner –Amy O.

The first dinner on 9/22 went well. Three groups gathered at three homes. The next scheduled dinner is 12/1. The registration deadline is 11/17. To register go to: stchb.org/guesswho

Apple Pie Sale– Carol Y.

The Apple Pie Library Fundraiser will take place the weekend of October 26-28. There are 3 shifts available to sign up for baking: 1) Friday, October 26, 5-9:30 pm, 2) Saturday, October 27, 8:30 am–noon, and 3) Saturday, October 27, noon to 4:00 pm. Volunteers may call or email Carol Y. Pies will be sold after the Masses that weekend.

Announcements

Humane Vitae Conference at University of St. Thomas on 10/22 – Katie F.

All day or evening options.

President's Acknowledgments

Thank you to Patty F., Kim S., and Michaela A. for the wonderful hospitality.

Raffle Drawing –Winners: Rose W. and Dottie R

The evening began with the Living Rosary followed by the impromptu business meeting and then the talk on Fatima by Barb E.