THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

Almighty ever-living God, who, when Christ had been baptized in the River Jordan and as the Holy Spirit descended upon Him, solemnly declared Him Your beloved Son, grant that Your children by adoption, reborn of water and the Holy Spirit, may always be well pleasing to You. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Today's Mass Readings

1st Reading: Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11

2nd Reading: Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7

Gospel: Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

The Baptism of the Lord

As we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of Jesus, we are invited to reflect upon the significance of our own Baptisms. Do I really believe that I have died to one form of life so that I might live in Christ? What does it mean for me to be a child of God? Do I renew my Baptismal promises every time I sign myself with the Sign of the Cross with holy water whenever I enter or leave my church?

Do I celebrate the anniversary date of my Baptism? Have I ever visited the Baptismal font in which I was baptized? Do I fulfill my responsibilities to the children of whom I am a godparent?
