THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

O God, who through your Word reconcile the human race to yourself in a wonderful way, grant, we pray, that with prompt devotion and eager faith the Christian people may hasten toward the solemn celebrations to come. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Today's Mass Readings

1st Reading: Joshua 5:9a, 10-12

2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:17-21

Gospel: Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

Verse before the Gospel: "I will get up and go to my Father and shall say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you."

Responsorial Psalm Meditation

Ps 34:2-7

The Responsorial Psalm is a celebration of God's goodness. We have been given an opportunity during Lent to turn back to his ways.

That is an experience that should fill us with joy. Lent is not a time for grief and gloom. It is a season of renewal and rebirth.

The latter part of the psalm gives us the two options that are placed before us. We can blush with shame if we refuse to use this Lenten season well, or we can look to God with faces that are radiant with joy.

God is always willing to hear our call, but we have to be willing to call out.

MONTH OF APRIL

The month of April is dedicated to the Holy Spirit.
