

PRINCIPAL OPENING

Located in Santa Fe New Mexico, Santo Niño Regional Catholic School is seeking a principal for the 2019 – 2020 school year. The newest school in the Archdiocese, Santo Niño was founded and is operated by the partner parishes of the Santa Fe Deanery to provide quality Catholic education to the families of the parishes and community. As an integral part of the educational ministry of the Santa Fe Deanery, the school exists primarily to provide a quality program of religious and academic education not only to the children of these parishes but also to other children in search of a Roman Catholic education in a school setting.

Santo Niño is accredited through the Western Catholic Education Association and provides a challenging academic curriculum fostered by Catholic values in a safe, diverse, family-oriented community. The school is a faith community guided by the Holy Spirit that works to build and nurture the students' total development through Catholic Doctrine and tradition.

The successful candidate will be a visionary leader with excellent communication and human relations skills who is dedicated to fostering a community of academic excellence within an environment that emphasizes Catholic identity and values. Qualifications include:

- Practicing Catholic in good standing with the Catholic Church
- A master's degree in educational administration or related field
- Five years experience as a teacher or administrator in a Catholic School
- Be eligible for principal licensure in the state of New Mexico

Qualified and interested individuals should contact:

Susan M. Murphy
Superintendent of Catholic Schools
Archdiocese of Santa Fe
4000 St. Joseph PL NW
Albuquerque, NM 87120
505-831-8172
smurphy@archdiosf.org

Please submit by April 12, 2019