

Volume XLII, Number 14
FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT
 April 7, 2019

Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery.
 Now, in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women.

In the law Moses also commanded that both parties be stoned [Deuteronomy 22:22]. But they only bring the woman before Jesus. Hmmm! Could the man "caught in the very act" have been an influential or high ranking public or religious official? Hmmm! It is not unusual for people to be selective in their decisions, quick to judge and unfair with condemnation. But imagine a world in which we all stopped judging others and were quick to be generous with all that God has given to us - everything we are and have. Jesus does not condemn the men who wanted to stone the woman. They actually condemn themselves. The woman does not deny her sin, but Jesus does not condemn her. He tells her to sin no more. When we are judgmental and selfish Jesus does not condemn us. But we should condemn ourselves and turn to Jesus for to help us, who is ready and anxious to forgive us.

This collection directly funds the diocesan Seminarians, Vocations and Permanent Diaconate Offices; these benefit not only our diocese but the entire church by informing, educating, establishing relationships with, and placing in service those called to ordained ministry and/or consecrated/religious life. These offices foster discernment to all vocations, the priesthood, diaconate, religious life and consecrated single life. Our quota for this year's collection is $6700.00. Your generous support is sincerely appreciated.

ETERNAL REST:

The faith community of St. Anthony would like to offer our condolences and sympathies to the family of Dr. Charles Spence.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon him.

CHRISM MASS on HOLY THURSDAY:

The Chrism Mass is one of the most beautiful liturgies which the faithful may experience in the liturgical year. At the Chrism Mass, in addition to priests reaffirming their ordination promises, the Bishop will bless the oils to be used in the administration of the sacraments this year. All the faithful of our Diocese will have the opportunity to participate in this very inspiring liturgy on Thursday, April 18, 2019 at 10:30 AM at the Cathedral in Houma. Please mark your calendars and make every effort to participate with your brothers and sisters in this Mass.

LOUISIANA PARTNERSHIP FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES:

Learn how you, as a child-serving stakeholder, can increase your impact as we engage in discussions about proposed policy changes, exchange information about state agencies child-serving organizations, and discuss the family economic stability issues being affected by the state budget. This will be an opportunity for dialogue to share experiences. The 2019 Regional Meeting & Legislative Preview for the Bayou Region will be held on Friday, April 12th at 10am at the North Branch of the Terrebonne Parish Library in Gray.
