Summer Reading Assignment for Incoming Freshmen

Required Text: Night by Elie Wiesel

Directions: Read Night by Elie Wiesel. Please purchase your own copy and bring it on the first day of school. As you read annotate your book by highlighting, underlining and writing in the margin important passages, interesting and/or surprising quotes and identify the different people that you meet in the memoir. There will be a test on the book when you come back to school in September.

If you encounter any new vocabulary you should look it up and take note of it and write it down in a notebook.

Assignment: After you are done reading, I would like you to write a letter to Elie Wiesel. Follow the instructions on the next page. The letter should be handwritten in legible script and handed in on the first day of school in September.

Any questions, feel free to email me at apetritsch@koinoniaacademy.org

Good luck and have a great summer! ☺

Letter to Elie Wiesel.

(Over the years, a number of students have written or asked Mr. Wiesel questions about his experiences and shared their own history with him as well. Write Mr. Wiesel a 1-2 paged letter. Some items to consider including in your letter:

- a) What questions would you ask him?
- b) What commentary or response would you make regarding the hatred and violence he experiences?
- c) What shared elements do the two of you have in regards to your identity? What are the differences?
- d) What would you want him to know about you as a person?
- e) Include anything else that you want to write to him about in your letter.

* This letter needs to be handwritten and use the format below to address your letter.
