14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"When the carpenter came he began to teach in the synagogue, and all were astonished, and they said, 'Where did this man get all this? What wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands...'"

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 8, 2018

If you have been closely following the Sunday readings, today's Gospel could sound a bit like a broken record. Four weeks ago, the Gospel told of Jesus visiting his home of Nazareth and being poorly received by his family members. Jesus had attracted a large crowd as he preached, and his concerned relatives came to bring him home. Jesus, they thought, was out of his league.

Today Jesus takes things further. He returns to Nazareth. Rather than preaching from his house, he enters the synagogue. He speaks eloquently. The listeners acknowledge that "wisdom has been given him" and recognize the "mighty deeds wrought by his hands," but it is too much for them to bear. "Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary?" The listeners know his whole clan, his male and female relatives. Jesus as carpenter was acceptable. Even Jesus as fringe preacher was interesting enough to draw a crowd. But Jesus as authoritative teacher is too much. "They took offense at him."

As Christians, we have known the truth of Jesus' identity since we were first introduced to him. He is fully human and fully divine. He is the second person of the Trinity. It could be easy to look down on these 1st century listeners for their lack of faith. But where do we expect to learn our own lessons? The more we age, the easier it is to believe we understand the world and how it works. We have experience with people, with the Church, with politics, and with the affairs of daily living. We have developed criteria for first impressions. We categorize. Today we remember that the Christian life requires humility. Jesus' listeners have an expectation of how things should be, and their lack of faith causes doubt in others. "He was not able to perform any mighty deeds there." Do your assumptions limit your perspective? Who can you learn from that you did not expect?

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE

Is He Not the Carpenter, the Son of Mary? – In today's Gospel, Jesus is unable to perform many miracles in his hometown because of the lack of faith of the people there. They fail to trust in him as the Son of God because they cannot see past him as the son of Mary and the carpenter. Instead of seeing with the eyes of faith they let the limits of their human sight get the better of them. Do we often fail to see with the eyes of faith? Are there times where we limit God's work in our lives and in the world because we are unable to trust in the power of his love? To see with the eyes of faith allows us to recognize God's work in the world, in the Church and in others for us, and in us for others. There are no limits to what God is capable of doing through our lives, for "nothing is impossible with God." On Mission for The Church Alive! is an opportunity for us to grow in trust of the amazing things that God can do in and through us for the good of the Church and of our communities. Don't limit the great work of God. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.
