

Bishop Jeffrey M. Monforton's Christmas Message 2018

*“And suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying:
‘Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests’” (Lk 2:13-14).*

The Nativity of the prince of peace instructs us in Jesus humanity is made whole again. We are fellow stewards of God's precious gifts, namely, you and me. The birth of Jesus is proclaimed with great joy by an angel for all to hear. May this Christmas season be one of profound joy and consolation for you and your family.

In this coming New Year may our words and works communicate that in the holy name of Jesus there always is hope, immense hope.
