Our Greatest Week

Gospel: Luke 22:14-23:56

Luke's edifying narrative, underlining the mercy and prayer of Jesus

Our liturgy this week invites us to follow Jesus every step of the way, beginning with his triumphant entry into Jerusalem. There he was welcomed, applauded and acclaimed by a crowd of well-wishers. On Thursday we will join him at table, to receive his gift of himself in the eucharistic bread and wine. After dining with him we will, in our reflections, go with him along the trail from the Upper Room to the Garden of Olives. There we will see him struggling with fear and anxiety about the cruel death that awaits him. On Good Friday we will be standing in spirit beside his mother at the foot of the cross, while he hands his spirit back to the Father who sent him.

On Saturday we will be quiet and silent around his tomb, as we remember the injustice and cruelty of humanity, for which he died. Then, late on Saturday, we will move from the darkness of our Passion journey to the place of the bright Easter fire. There we will join the procession of the great Paschal Candle, representing the risen Christ, as he lights up the darkness of our church and lives.

The pain of our compassion with Jesus to Calvary will give way to the hope and joy of Easter. Jesus Christ is not dead and gone. No, he is risen, strong and powerful, alive in himself, and alive in us. Then we can hold in our hearts those assuring words that Juliana of Norwich in her vision of Christ Crucified. From his own lips she heard this promise: 'All will be well, all will be well, all manner of things will be well.'

Holy Week is the most intense liturgical moment of the year. However, for many Catholics it has become only an occasion of rest and fun. They forget the essentials: this week we must dedicate it to prayer and reflection in the mysteries of the Passion and Death of Jesus to take advantage of all the graces that this brings us. To live Holy Week, we must give God the first place and participate in all the richness of the celebrations of this liturgical season.

Holy Week was originally called "The Great Week". This week begins with Palm Sunday and ends with Easter Sunday. To live Holy Week is to accompany Jesus with our prayers, sacrifices and the repentance of our sins. Attend the Sacrament of Penance these days to die to sin and be resurrected with Christ on Easter Day. The important thing of this time is not to remember with sadness what Christ suffered, but to understand why he died and rose again. It is to celebrate and relive his surrender to death for love of us and the power of his Resurrection, which is the first of ours. Holy Week was the last week of Christ on earth. His Resurrection reminds us that men were created to live eternally with God.
