10th Sunday in Ordinary Time June 5, 2016

Saint Paul begins today's second reading by stating that he was "called" to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As baptized Catholics who have an opportunity to share in Christ's life through the Eucharist regularly, we too are called to proclaim the teachings of Christ. We are stewards of Christ's Gospel. But how are we responding to that call? Do we listen for the guidance of the Holy Spirit? Do we evade, dodge or ignore the Lord's call? Do we attempt to proclaim the Gospel in a spirit of compassion and love? Reflect on how you exercise stewardship over the Gospel.

With tornado season upon us, in the event severe weather sirens go off during Mass, the plan at Holy Trinity is to head over to the parish hall basement.

At Twelve Apostles, Mass attendees should head to the basement, staying away from the windows. Those unable to navigate the stairs should go to the elevator closet or bathrooms.

If Communion is being distributed, Eucharistic ministers should first put the Body and Blood of Christ in the tabernacle.

Are you 70 ½ or older?

Do you want to save federal and state income taxes?

Giving directly from your IRA to a qualified charity like your parish or diocese can be a tax-wise strategy. Please consult your legal or tax adviser or Greg Vranicar of the diocesan Office of Stewardship and Development at 816-714-2363 or vranicar@diocesekcsj.org. Gifts of this type satisfy your "required minimum distribution (rmd)" and will help you avoid paying income tax on whatever amount you transfer directly to charity.
