Chili Cook-Off Regulations:

Rule No. 1: Teams are solely responsible for providing all supplies and equipment including tables, canopies, booth decorations, propane powered burners, recipe ingredients, ice chest, utensils, etc. Electricity will not be provided. Someone from your team must man the booth during the entire event. Set up available at 12 pm. Chili must be ready to have taste cups available to Fall Festival guests by 2 pm. Judging begins at 4 pm. NOTE: If you do not have a propane powered burner or a canopy, please notify the coordinators of the event – we have some available for those that need one.

Rule No. 2: Each team must make at least 3 Gallons of Chili for all of our tasters! Patrons will donate $5 and receive one tasting cup from each chili team. Saint Paul Chili Cook-Off organizers will provide the cups and spoons.

Rule No. 3: Please have a poster with the name of your Chili Team for display. Brochures etc. may be on your table along with your recipe if you would like to share with the crowd.

Rule No. 4: Serving gloves and apron must be worn while preparing and serving chili. Please wear a hat or hair must be tied back.

Rule No. 5: Have a great time!
