

St. Mary's Catholic School in Natchitoches, LA (located in the Diocese of Alexandria, Louisiana) is seeking a Director of Religious Education/High School Religion teacher to help form and lead the next generation of Catholics.

St. Mary's has a long and proud tradition built around faith and family. We are eager to welcome a faith-filled Catholic who is in good standing with the Church and willing to lead others to a spiritually healthy and dignified life of fulfillment. Applicants must have a sound knowledge of Catholic teaching, especially regarding the challenging social issues of today. Classroom experience, as well as adequate theological training and/or a college degree will be greatly valued and given extra consideration. Dedication to working with the Pastor and school administration towards a holistic formation program for our children is vital. Finally, we are eager for applicants who are willing to engage in active ministry outside of the classroom to achieve this goal. Will you respond to Christ's calling?
