Safety Updates at OLMM

Safety in worship is something that everyone needs to take seriously and keeping parishioners safe has been the discussion points in the Safety Ministry this past year. After a review of current practices and how we can enhance safety practices at Church and the Banquet Center (CCD), some new safety measures will be implemented in the near future. So that parishioners are aware of these safety changes, please note the following new practices and changes will be implemented sometime in the beginning of October 2018:

- * After Mass has started, only the front doors and the handicap accessible doors will remain open. Limiting the entry is designed to maximize everyone's safety. If you find a door locked, please proceed to the front doors of the church for entry.
- * Allen wrenches will be available for door security and placed near the doors. Ushers and others will be informed about the location and operation of the doors.
- * Panic Buttons, which are part of our security system, will be installed in the church and Banquet Hall.
- * Safes will be purchased and placed in locations that are meant to be a temporary storage of money collected at Mass and for events held in the Banquet Hall.
- * Parishioners are urged to contact an usher if suspicious activity is detected. This allows the priest and deacon to officiate at Mass and the ushers can assist in notifying authorities and/or using deterrent measures.

Please know that safety is everyone's concern. If you have questions, please contact Scott Moore, Safety Ministry Chairperson. Thank you!
