22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time September 1, 2019

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." At the end of the reading Jesus suggests there is great hope in the cross. Today's followers of Christ recognize they are stewards of his entire legacy, including his cross and that through their mutual sacrifices God's glory is revealed. They don't live their lives in Christ only when it is convenient for them. They make a decision to take up their cross and carry it, no matter what the cost is to themselves. Reflect this week on the cross you bear in order to reveal God's glory. How do you embrace that cross? How, at times, do you shirk that cross when it is not convenient?

Offerings at the Sophia Center, Atchison KS

Reading as a Spiritual Practice: Flannery O'Connor Revisited – Faith in Fiction, a 3-part series (also October 8 & November 12)
Tuesday, September 10, 10:30 am-3:00 pm

Though she died in 1964 at 39, Flannery O'Connor is acclaimed as one of the best writers of 20th century fiction. A woman of faith, she used fiction to show what happens when we live our lives without the most important Christian beliefs. Her writings help us wrestle with human dilemmas & her characters challenge us to move beyond a world where everything is black & white. This series will use three of her short stories as vehicles for learning, discussing, trying for a better understanding of human nature, & growing in faith. The first short story of the series will be A Good Man is Hard to Find. A copy of the book, A Good Man is Hard to Find & Other Stories, provided for those who register for the complete three-part series. Individuals are able to attend a single session but will be asked to provide their own copy of the story which may be acquired from a local library or bookstore. Fee for all 3 sessions including 3 retreat days, 3 noon meals, & a copy of the book: $90.00 (Each individual session, including retreat with noon meal: $30.00).

Women in Scripture: Models of Trust & Letting Go Thursday, September 19, 9:30 am-3:30 pm

We will spend time with these two women, learning how their deep & abiding trust in God shaped them as mothers. Come & enjoy some time away to renew your spirit while also learning, journaling, praying & sharing in the stories of these biblical mothers and connecting with one another. Renee Neff-Clark has become a true "empty-nester" & is learning what it means to be a mother to a young adult son. She has a degree in Religious Studies & has been a student of the Bible & a leader of Bible Studies throughout her life. The stories of women in Scripture have always held a special place in her heart, as they represent & reflect the lives of all women, both then & now. Register by Sept. 12. $65 fee includes the noon meal.
