FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

In this weekend's Gospel we hear Jesus saying, 'Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.' The words of Jesus remain with us to this very day, comforting us, guiding us, challenging us. They turn our values upside down. Once heard, they can never be forgotten.

But for all that, they will benefit us little unless we act on them. They are like precious seeds. If left in a jar, they remain just so many seeds. But if they are taken out and planted, they produce a rich harvest.

In comparison with faith, there is nothing sure or lasting in the world. Human opinions are rooted in appearances, and change from day to day, but the words of Jesus do not change or pass away. We would do well to build the house of our life on his words.

Perhaps you might have heard people say: "if I did not have faith in God, I would have got lost long ago." Yes, this faith gives me courage and hope to persist. It gives me certainty. I live by faith. And that is the message of hope that today's Gospel conveys: Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away." God's Word abides forever. There lies the guarantee of our faith.

GOD BLESS YOU ALL!!

Fr. Thomas
