FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Just as an orchard is judged by the quality of its fruit, so a person's talk shows what kind of person he is. (First Reading) This links with what Jesus says in the Gospel: 'A tree is known by its fruit ... the words of the mouth flow out of what it fills the heart.'

Once there was a young monk who committed a serious fault. Immediately the elder monks assembled in community to pass judgement on him. However, they wouldn't proceed until their abbot joined them. So they sent him a message: 'Come, the community is waiting for you.'

The abbot came, and taking an old basket which was riddled with holes, he filled it with fine sand. Then he started off, carrying the basket behind him. Naturally, as he went along, he left a trail of sand in his wake.

The elders came out to meet him and asked him what he meant by this. And he replied, 'My sins are running out behind me. Everywhere I go I leave a trail of faults after me, only most of the time I don't see them myself. And today you want me to sit in judgement on my brother.'

On hearing this the elders felt ashamed of themselves. They abandoned the trial and pardoned their brother.

Jesus tells us to take the beam out of our own eye first, and then we can think about removing the splinter from our neighbor's eye. We must put our own house in order first before daring to try to put someone else's house in order.

In the Gospel it is no longer a question of love of enemies, but of love of one's brothers and sisters in the community. A Christian is his brother's keeper. But one cannot undertake to guide others unless one has found the way oneself. Hence self-criticism must precede criticism of others. Let us pray to the Lord for enlightenment.

"God bless you all!! Have a great week!!!"

Fr. Thomas

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS:

FULL DAY OF CONFESSIONS

This year's diocesan Day of Confessions will take place on Wednesday, April 10, enabling us to set aside our old ways, to be renewed in heart and soul, and to be reconciled with our merciful and loving God. As Pope Frances reminds us, confession is where we encounter Jesus.

Confession times in our

Sacred Heart Church:
10:15 am to 12:00 pm
5:00 pm to 7:00 pm

Our diocesan website (www.dol.ca) offers a schedule of confession times for other parishes, as well as information about Lent.

CWL CRAFT DAY & SHOEBOXES- RESCHEDULED

The CWL Craft Day & Shoe Boxes will held on Tuesday March 5, 2019 at the Langton Community Centre, starting at 1 pm. Please come and join us to help fill the shoe boxes and for craft making and a coffee. We are shipping the shoe boxes differently this year, so please bring your articles for them. Thank you Mary Anne Kersten.

NEW PARISH WEBSITE

From January 1st our parish is having a new website which we share with St. Mary's Tillsonburg because the Diocese has stopped supporting our parish website. As we are still working on it, it will take awhile for us to post all information's about our parish. In order to have access to our parish bulletin, please click on the Sunday date, and if you happen to click on Saturdays date, you will be finding St. Mary's bulletin. You will no more be receiving the bulletin by emails. Thank you for your patience.

KING'S OPEN HOUSE

King's University College will be hosting an open house for future students, friends, family and alumni on Saturday, March 9 from noon until 4 pm. All are welcome. Attend program Ted Talks, tour campus and residence, and meet professors and current students to learn about programs for Fall 2019. For more information visit www.kings.uwo.ca/about-kings/media-and-communications/newsroom/kings-open-house-coming-march-9/.

This Share Lent - lets create a culture of encounter

For this year's Share Lent, Development and Peace-Caritas Canada encourages us to reach out to forcibly displaced persons and to share their journey. How?

1. Donate online at devp.org/give or give during the Solidarity Sunday collection on the 5th Sunday of Lent on April 7. The funds collected are used to support over 162 projects in 37 countries around the world!
2. Take part or organize a solidarity walk in solidarity with forcibly displaced persons: devp.org/walk.
3. Read the Development and Peace Share Lent materials as a way to encounter children, women and men who have been forcibly displaced and to learn how their partners are making a difference.

For more information, please contact Rita Bailey by email: ruby101@sympatico.ca or Elena Luna at 1-647-561-1648 or email: eluna@devp.org.

2018 CHARITABLE DONATION RECEIPTS

The 2018 Charitable Donation Receipts are available at the back of the Church. Thank you for your co-operation in picking up your 2018 donation receipts.

COME AND SEE DISCERNMENT WEEKEND AT ST. PETER'S SEMINARY

St. Peter's Seminary invites men 17 – 45 years old considering a call to the priesthood to a discernment retreat on the weekend of March 1 – 3. The retreat offers a firsthand experience at the life of a seminarian, spiritual helps for discernment and an opportunity to meet current seminarians and faculty. Contact Fr. Patrick Bénéteau at vocations@dol.ca, or 519-432-1824 ext. 204, for more information or to register. Visit www.dol.ca/news to view the event postcard.
