Having received the honor of being chosen by someone to be their Confirmation sponsor, you have requested of this parish, testimony of your qualifications to fulfill such a role. In general, the role of the sponsor is regarded as more than a merely symbolic role: it is, rather, a role intended to give example of Catholic-Christian Faith. Undoubtedly, you have been chosen for your many good qualities and characteristics as a person. However, the qualifications for a sponsor go beyond just moral or character considerations; they also include signs of full communion with the Church in the sacramental life and the aspect of worship.

Please answer the following questions in order that we may determine your eligibility:

- |   | Yes   | No    |
