ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE! Isn't This The Son Of Joseph - In today's Gospel we find Jesus in the synagogue in Nazareth, his hometown. He proclaims that he is the anointed one of God and that he has come to renew the world in fulfillment of what the prophets foretold. The people are amazed by his words, but they also question him. They know him as the son of Joseph, the carpenter. To them he is a simple man from a simple family. While they are attracted by the words that he speaks they wonder how he could possibly do the amazing things that he speaks of. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to share his life and love with everyone we meet. Often times we feel called as missionaries to help those in need in other parts of our city, throughout the country and even halfway across the world! Yet, sometimes we can feel most challenged in proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel in our hometown or home parish. We wonder how we could possibly be an effective witness of Jesus to the people who know our weaknesses and who have seen us at our less than best. Be confident! This is the exact witness that the world needs, that God calls us in our imperfection to set the world on fire with his love that is already burning in our hearts. As we continue our journey On Mission for The Church Alive! we are invited to be effective witnesses of the Gospel both near and far. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTE: Worry is a conversation you have with yourself about things you cannot change. Prayer is a conversation you have with God about things He can change.

MARRIAGE: MADE FOR A REASON: National Marriage Week is quickly approaching! From February 7th to 14th the Church throughout the United States will be celebrating the gift marriage is to our Church and reflecting how we can build up a culture of life and love that supports marriage and family. As Catholics, an understanding of God's plan for marriage and family is an essential part of living the call to holiness. Marriage and family life are schools of love. They teach us how to reach a communion of love within the context of daily life: full of joys, sacrifices, trials and hopes. As Christ's sacrifice on the cross exemplified, love is laying down one's life for another. Spouses and family members are called to do the same, each and every day.
