Do to Others as You Would Have Them Do to You – This sentence taken from today’s Gospel is usually referred to as the “Golden Rule.” Calling this life maxim golden would suggest that something about it is precious. In fact, it highlights that every human life is precious. The dignity and respect that the Golden Rule sets forth applies to all human life as we work to love and support the unborn, the elderly and everyone in between. At the same time, the Golden Rule also applies to every relationship and encounter of our lives. While we all have those people in our lives that are harder to love than others, Jesus calls us to a higher way of living, sacrificing and even suffering in order to love another as we expect to be loved ourselves. On Mission for The Church Alive! invites us to live out the Golden Rule in the context of our parish groupings: to welcome as we would expect to be welcomed; to encourage as we would expect to be encouraged; to build up as we would expect to be built up. We are all precious to God, and we should make the most of the opportunities we have to let each other know it. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.
