Blessed Is He Who Comes in the Name of the Lord – Today we celebrate the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. The crowds waved palm and olive branches as Jesus rode into the city on a colt. They welcomed him as royalty, so moved were their hearts in faith and trust of God. Yet, while Christ’s procession into the city is a moment of joy, the joy is fleeting as the coming days lead to the passion and death of Jesus. The central mysteries of our faith that we celebrate this week highlight for us the lengths to which God will go out of love for us. It is appropriate to ask ourselves, then, what lengths will we go to for God. As we journey On Mission for The Church Alive! it is not just our parishes that we should hope to be transformed. We should also hope that our hearts are transformed in love and service to God and others. How are we called to be ambassadors of Christ, coming in His name to share the life and light of God with everyone we meet? On Mission invites us to be representatives of Christ before others that they may know His loving work in the world today. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.
