LIVING AS LIGHT IN GOD'S CREATION

In today's Gospel, (Luke 16:1-13), Luke's Jesus lets us know everything will change for those who decide to be his followers. Discipleship is not a part-time job; our whole lives revolve around our decision to be other Christs. That's why he brings up the case of the "squandering" steward.

Luke isn't encouraging his readers to find ways to shortchange their employers, but to be as creative in being good as the steward is creative in being bad. Faith cannot be simply a sideline that sometimes squeezes into an other-directed life. We often do good for someone, but it's not at the center of our scheduled day.

Jesus observes, "The children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light." Our fundamental option is obviously where we spend our time and exert our effort. It makes sense that "No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and riches."

Later, in Chapter 18, Luke will copy much of Mark's Chapter 10 narrative in which Jesus talks about how hard it is for a rich person to "enter the kingdom of God." A camel has a better chance of getting through the eye of a needle. Jesus isn't saying that the wealthy can't get into heaven; he is simply stating that if someone's life quest is to make money, she or he will never discover God working effectively in their lives here and now, long before they go through the pearly gates.

Both the Gospel Jesus and the historical Jesus are concerned with people getting the most out of life. Our fundamental option is the first step in reaching that goal. If our faith is on the perimeter of our lives, no matter how many religious actions we perform, we will never accomplish what God intends for us.

PRAYER REQUESTS

We are asked to remember in our prayers:

Janine Hoffman, Anne Shea,
Lori Lesutis,

Carol Luty, William O'Donnell, Fran Ward,

Michael and Andrew McCaughey,

Bill and Ella Denny, Jo-Ann Stigliano,

and Kenny and Ed Gaffney

and all who care for those who are sick and dying.

Please call the Parish Office at 610-525-0147 if you would like to request yourself or a family member be put on our prayer list for the next 4 weeks. You can also make a request that the prayers of the community be renewed for another 4-week period as often as needed or desired.

H.O.P.E.

Helping Other People in Emergencies

If you need a ride to the doctor, shopping, etc., call Sr. Anne at 610-525-0147 ext. 234.

Welcome

We welcome to our parish community Kathryn Meintel who recently registered with us.

We pray for the happy repose of the soul of Phillip H. Duffy and for the consolation of his family.

COMMUNAL ANOINTING MASS

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated on Saturday evening, October 5 at the 5:00 p.m. Mass. The name of the Sacrament, Anointing of the Sick, tells us that the sacrament is for those who are sick, not just for the dying. It is a sacrament of healing, and the Church wants us to ask for this sacrament before we are at the point of death. It instructs all those who minister to the sick that great care and concern should be taken to see that those of the faithful whose health is impaired by sickness or old age receive this sacrament.

Please come to church in plenty of time to be registered for the sacrament and helped to be seated in special places for the priests to anoint you. Greeters will be on hand by 4:30 pm to welcome you to this special celebration.

PREP, TENT EVENT AND WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Dear Friends,

It was heart-warming to see so many PREP families and teachers at the Mass for Catechetical Sunday this past weekend. We start our regular PREP gatherings with the children this coming Sunday.

Tent Event. Please come and see the displays presented by our OMGC ministries after each of the Masses this weekend. I know that many of the teams are busy with their plans. I've seen email traffic among members of the ChristLife, Music Ministry and Liturgical Ministry groups. I'm sure all the other ministries are finalizing their plans as well.

Even if you usually use the side or back entrance, please come out to the lawn near the Blessed Mother statue to visit the tents. I hear there will be wine and cheese Saturday evening and coffee and donuts after the Sunday Masses.

The event aims to showcase our various ministries for those unfamiliar with them, and to welcome new volunteers to be part of the activities of our parish. So please, stop by and have a look at the diverse activities in which our parishioners are engaged. You may find something that appeals to you.

World Mission Sunday, 2019. Pope Francis writes: "For the month of October, 2019, I have asked that the whole Church revive her missionary awareness...giving fresh evangelical impulse to her work of preaching and bringing to the world the salvation of Jesus Christ, who died and rise again." The Archdiocese of Philadelphia will send Maryknoll Brother John Bolazo to OMGC to speak at all of our Masses on October 12 & 13. Please welcome Brother John.

Let's continue to pray for each other.

Peace,
Fr. Liam

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Inquiry Sessions: A new series of Inquiry sessions will begin on Wednesday evening, September 25 at 7:00–8:15 pm (please note change of time) in the Parish Center of Our Mother of Counsel Parish. This is the beginning phase of the RCIA process for anyone who may be considering becoming a member of the Catholic Church or who may be interested in learning more about the Catholic Church. If you, or someone you know, may be interested in learning more about the RCIA process, please call S. Anne Woodshick at 610-525-0147 (ext. 234) or email her at awoodshick@omgcp parish.net.

Inquiry sessions, also known as the precatechumenate period, is a series of 6 or 7 Wednesday evenings this Fall, beginning on September 25 from 7:00–8:15pm. This initial phase is a time of discernment, the first stirrings of faith and conversion perhaps, a time to sort out questions and motivations and often the first introduction to the Catholic Church. At this point in the process, the individuals are called “inquirers.”

If you know someone who might need a gentle nudge to begin inquiring about the process, encourage them to email Sister Anne at awoodshick@omgcp parish.net or call her at 610-525-0147, ext. 234 who would love to help with their initial questions.

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT

Our parish is offering each month a marriage enrichment program for all married couples of all ages. Children are welcome to come with their parents for dinner and then to spend time playing with the other children while their parents have some time to be alone with each other. They will also have the opportunity to share with other married couples their experiences of married life. This will take place this month on Sunday, October 6 from 4:30 to 6:00pm in the Social Center of the school building. If you would like to join us, please call the Parish Office at 610-525-0147 so that we know how much food to prepare.

October 4th is the feast of St. Francis of Assisi.

Francis had a great appreciation of all of God’s creation and especially animals.

In his honor we celebrate his feast day with the blessing of animals which will take place here at Our Mother of Good Counsel on Sunday, October 6th at 12:30 PM.

SENIOR COMMUNITY MEMBERS

The Senior Members of our Parish, together with parishioners from nearby parishes, will gather on the afternoon of Friday, September 27 at 12 noon in the lovely Social Center of the school building. If you plan to join us for a relaxing and community-building afternoon, please bring your usual lunch nourishment. Beverages and desserts will be provided by the members who have already volunteered to do so. We look forward to seeing those of you who are able to come.

SPIRITUAL READING GROUP

The Spiritual Reading Group will meet again on Friday, October 4 at 10:00 a.m. in the Parish Center. This group usually meets on the first Friday of each month. For more information, contact S. Anne Woodshick at 610-525-0147, ext. 234.
