Progress at RockenRo

We clergymen new to RockenRo have made efforts to get to know you and help you get to know us and to know each other better. We've found ways to meet our routine duties to provide the sacraments and care for souls. We've been listening to you to come to a better qualitative understanding of how you see yourselves and your mission as disciples of Jesus Christ in the context of his Church. You have helped us and continue to help us in these endeavors.

Meanwhile, we've begun a somewhat more quantitative analysis of RockenRo:

People: What staff positions does each parish have? What are the abilities of each staff member? What are they accomplishing? Where are they headed in their ministries and careers? What organizations are active at each parish? What do they do and what more might they do? What about volunteers and hitherto untapped talent?

Money: What are our assets and liabilities? Where does the money come from and where is it going? What's the future in planned giving and estate bequests? How can we cut costs or otherwise control loss? Do we need to expand revenue to fuel any expansion of our mission?

Property: What is the condition of our land and buildings? How do we use them? How do we need to adapt our usage to better serve our mission? Are we maintaining these for future use or deferring maintenance to the next generation? Have we addressed basic safety and security concerns? What about furnishings and other aspects of the parishes' patrimony?

Programming: Above all, what happens at Sunday Mass: attendance, music, ministers, preaching, hospitality, bulletins? What about daily Mass? How many people receive how many sacraments through the year? What else happens: religious education and faith formation, care for the bereaved, outreach and social ministry, social events,

As with the qualitative, so with the quantitative: If you have information you think I should have, please email me or convey the information to the pastoral and finance councilors at your parish.

Over the past two months we all have been adjusting to new/interim Mass schedules to accommodate the spiritual needs of our people in RocKenRo. While the weekend schedule has remained the same, the weekday schedules changed so that more opportunities for Adoration, Reconciliation and evening Mass could draw in more of our faithful to experience the love of Christ.

At Holy Trinity Parish, Mass, Adoration and confession times switched to the evening—outside of the school Mass on Friday morning. Prior to the start of the interim Mass schedule, Holy Trinity had an evening Mass with Adoration, Reconciliation and other prayer options celebrated from 6:30-8:30PM. For the past two months, we have seen a sizeable number of people attending on Mon-Wed. and on Friday the new schedule of Adoration and Reconciliation from 5:30-6:15PM and Mass at 6:30PM. At the same time, the large number who attended on Thursday evenings has spread themselves out to the other weeknights and only a few have stayed past 7PM for the additional Adoration, confession time and devotional prayers.

The intention of the interim Mass schedule was to meet the needs of our people while staying open to how they responded to the schedule and to adjust said schedule to fit the pattern of those attending services. With this in mind, it makes sense to have the evening schedule be consistent Mon.-Fri., concluding at 7PM with no extended services on Thursday evenings. Please be advised this adjustment will take place immediately. If you have any questions, please contact the Parish Office at 412-787-2140.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE

To Each Individual the Manifestation of the Spirit Is Given for Some Benefit – Last weekend, as we celebrated the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River, we also had an opportunity to reflect on our own Baptism. Through Baptism we are washed clean of Original Sin and enter into the life of grace through the gift of the Holy Spirit. And it doesn't end there! In Confirmation we receive the fullness of God's Spirit and are sent forth into the world as instruments of his life and love. Yet, while we are united in the Spirit of God as his children, we are not robots who all speak the same words or who do identical deeds in God's name. Instead, as Saint Paul reminds us in today's second reading, each one of us shared uniquely in the gifts of the Spirit so that we might fulfill God's unique will for us. The journey of our life of faith must then include discerning the gifts that God has given us and how he wants us to use them. This is an important part of the On Mission for The Church Alive! initiative. If each one of us has been endowed with spiritual gifts in what ways can we use them to enliven the Church? Spend a few moments in prayer this week and ask the Lord to help you know the gifts the Spirit has bestowed upon you and how you are being called to share them. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.
