ATTENTION ALL SACRISTANS

Because we have added several people, and increased our group. I believe this is a good time to come together and discuss all issues that have been brought to my attention,. And also this will give us all an opportunity to meet folks from other Masses. And most important to share our blessings, and also our challenges that are a part of this beautiful ministry. We will meet on Wednesday January 30th, 6:30 pm. Conference room. I hope this will give you plenty all plenty of time to plan and schedule in your calendars.

Thank you all so much for all that you do in this beautiful ministry, may the lord continue to bless you.

Deacon Tom Perez

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Important Dates

The dates for First Communion are Sunday, May 5th at the 9:00 am mass for the Spanish Language First Communion students and Sunday, May 19th at the 11:00 am mass for the English Language First Communion students.

We're having a retreat for our First Communion students and the First Communion students from San Felipe de Neri school on Saturday, March 2nd from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm. This is required for all First Communion students and more details will be available soon.

Documents Needed

Parents of First Communion students must provide me a copy of their children's birth and Baptismal certificates for their children to receive their First Communion. Parents of 2nd Year Confirmation students must provide me a copy of their children's Baptismal and 1st Communion Certificates for their children to receive their Confirmation.

2nd Year Confirmation Community Service

Projects

In January the majority of 2nd Year Confirmation students spent a Saturday morning working at Roadrunner Foodbank preparing nonperishable food items for food pantries. In the coming months they'll be working at the Store House on Broadway and the Good Shepherds Center with the possibility that they may be helping with some repairs being done at the San Jose de Los Duranes Mission.

Class Schedule

Classes will meet at their regular times until Presidents Day weekend. Presidents Day is Monday, February 18, 2019.

DIRECTIVES REGARDING LITURGICAL PRACTICES DURING THE 2019 FLU SEASON

ALBUQUERQUE – Monday, January 14, 2019–
IMMEDIATE RELEASE—New Mexico is one of the states listed by the U.S. Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as having wide-spread flu outbreaks and high Influenza-like Illness (ILI) Activity.

Due to the severity of the flu season, the archdiocese will be taking the following steps in regards to the celebration of Mass:

- During the Sign of Peace, instead of shaking hands or hugging, as is practiced in some parishes, it would be best to simply nod your head and avoid bodily contact.
 - When praying the Our Father, please do not hold hands. Simply extend your hands toward Heaven or fold your hands.
 - Holy Communion will not be received under both species, just the Consecrated Host and not the Chalice.
 - The celebrant of any Mass in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe is to encourage the reception of the Consecrated Host in the hands. Please note, many liturgists believe the reception of the Consecrated Host in the hands is considered more appropriate liturgically than receiving the Consecrated Host on the tongue. This directive is aimed at limiting contact with saliva, thus limiting the spread of the flu virus.
 - Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should wash their hands just prior to distribution Holy Communion and should wash them immediately after distribution. If it is easier, an anti-bacterial gel can be used.
 - If you are sick, sneezing or coughing, it would be best for you to stay home. You are welcome to take advantage of the Sunday TV Masses which are available in English and Spanish. It is not a sin to miss Mass on Sundays if you are ill. Please note the reason for these directives is to limit the spread of influenza and to save lives. Please pray for all who have lost their lives as a result of the flu, and may we do our part to prevent its spread.
- These directives will be revoked when the situation improves.

For more information, please contact the Office of Worship at 505.831.8128 or the Office of the Vicar General at 505. 831.8158
