In this case, it is blessing the throats of those with disorders and anyone who wishes to avoid getting such a malady (or something related to the throat.)

Excellence through Worship, Study, and Service

Wanted! Looking for a few good Catholic men and women!

To Serve RCIA

The formation for those adults seeking to become Catholic (RCIA) is looking to develop a strong team to help RCIA grow into a year-round formation process; accommodating people throughout the year whenever they respond to God calling them to the Sacraments. We need teachers and assistants for elementary, middle school and high school and adult English and Spanish formation.

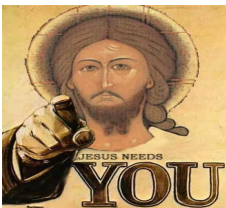

There are many ways to serve RCIA. Want to teach a class or befriend someone on this journey and travel with them as a mentor and friend? Are you good at organizing or decorating? How about keeping up with communications, helping the RCIA folks and the parishioners of St. Anthony know what is going on in RCIA and the parish? We need someone who is good with the behind the scenes data entry and document collecting. You can serve year-round or just for a short period in the year helping with a particular phase of the RCIA formation.

To check things out you are welcome to join us any night at the English RCIA Tuesday evenings at 7pm. Please contact the RCIA Director, Bernice Simmons, at 972-333-9859 & bernice@saint-anthony.com.
